1. Purpose

This Code of Conduct sets the standard of professional and ethical behavior expected of every employee, contractor, and officer of Sogno Enterprise.

2. Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to act honestly, treat colleagues and clients with courtesy, meet commitments, and represent the company professionally in all internal and external interactions, including on social media when identifiable as a Sogno Enterprise employee.

3. Respectful Workplace

Sogno Enterprise is committed to a workplace free of harassment, bullying, and discrimination on the basis of gender, age, religion, disability, national origin, or any other protected characteristic. This applies to in-person, remote, and online interactions between colleagues.

4. Harassment and Discrimination

Harassment includes unwelcome conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment. Any employee who experiences or witnesses harassment or discrimination should report it using the process in Section 6. Retaliation against a person who reports in good faith is itself a violation of this Code.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose to their manager and to People & Culture any situation where personal interests — financial, familial, or otherwise — could reasonably conflict with the interests of Sogno Enterprise, including outside employment, board seats, or business relationships with vendors or clients.

6. Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential company, client, and colleague information both during and after employment, consistent with the Data Protection & Privacy Policy (SGN-IT-06) and any signed confidentiality agreement.

7. Reporting Concerns

Concerns may be raised to a manager, to People & Culture (peopleandculture@sogno-entreprise.com), or anonymously through the Ethics Hotline. Reports are investigated confidentially and, where substantiated, may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
